

THE NEED OF ISLAMIC THOUGHT REFORMATION

Our end of the century, as we all know was a period of major changes in the whole world with the fact that develop a total revolution against the communist ideology and platform obscurant the cold war, which brought humanity; misery, poverty, meaningless wars, and moral and material poverty, to persuade it comes to an "unprecedented end of history" as Francis Fukuyama would have expressed figuratively.

What is more interesting, a similar assessment, would say fatalistic regarding potential changes and consequences that would bring them with you to the systems of Europe, said during the First World War. Even at that time, that assessment then considered the last war; war against all other previous wars that developed figured expanding democracy. But what happened? It was not even the "end" or "beginning of the end"; Democracy, as a modest alternative of building relations between people, not set! Instead of thanks across Europe the language of violence entered the communist monsters (1917) and fascism (1939). World War II also historians will be remembered with the tensions and dances global due bore fight cold to continue the wars in the Gulf, the former Yugoslavia (Croatia, Bosnia, Kosovo, the bombing of Serbia) Afghanistan, Iraq, Ukraine, and Syria

Key Words: The late, Eastern Europe, Former Yugoslavia, World War II, a war between civilizations, Islam and democracy, center and periphery, "Protestantism" Islamic, etc.